

Toronto Bisnow
daily commercial real estate email newsletter
Toronto, ON
December 15, 2016

News

Toronto Sustainability

AVISON YOUNG JOINS CARBON IMPACT INITIATIVE

Dec 15, 2016 | Ryan Starr, Bisnow Toronto

Courtesy of Avison Young

Avison Young is a founding partner in the Carbon Impact Initiative, the first CRE services firm to join the organization, which is working with government to reduce

FREE TORONTO E-NEWSLETTER

I accept the terms of use

SIGN UP FOR FREE!

NATIONAL 03.28.2017
BISNOW'S BIG WEST COAST RETAIL EVENT

Matthew Berger -- Brixmor Property Group
Steve Plenge -- Pacific Retail
John Mehigan -- Regency Centers

MOST READ STORIES

1 Bealeigh, A5 Hospitality Form Food Hall Partnership

Toronto

Dec 13, 2

the carbon impact of commercial buildings at all development stages, from design to operations. CEO Mark Rose said CII will play a “key role” in cutting emissions in new and existing buildings across Ontario, an issue we spotlighted in this special report. Avison Young’s involvement with CII will give its team added expertise on sustainable design and construction, Mark said, which will in turn assist AY’s office, retail and industrial clients in reducing their carbon footprints.

See Also: Special Report: Canadian CRE Needs To Up Its Green Game

Related Topics: Avison Young, Mark Rose, Carbon Impact Initiative

2 Q&A With Kelly Smith: Peaceable Street Capital’s Canada Lead

Toronto
Capital Markets

Dec 15, 2016

3 CBRE, Cushman Brokers Take Top Honours At SIOR Awards

Toronto The Scene

Dec 15, 2016

4 Bay Street Is Canada’s Most Expensive Office Corridor

Toronto Office

Dec 13, 2016

5 CentreCourt To Build First Residential Project At Vaughan Metropolitan Centre

Toronto Multifamily

Dec 13, 2016

RELATED STORIES

Bentall Kennedy Tops GRESB Sustainability Ranking

Ontario's 4 Best Brownfield Redevelopment Projects

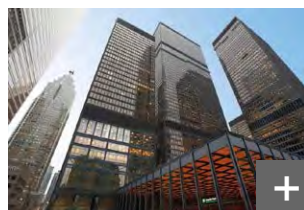

AIG’s Exit Spurred Green Revamp at 145 Wellington St W

AeroCentre, Richmond Adelaide

MEC Commits To Using 100% Green

How TD Centre Has Become A

MORE TOP STORIES