Carole Arbour joins Avison Young as Vice-President, Management Services, Quebec

Montreal, QC— Bernard Poliquin, President and Managing Director of Avison Young-Quebec operations, announced today that property management specialist Carole Arbour has joined Avison Young's Quebec operations as Vice-President, Management Services.

Well-known in the property management industry, Arbour will focus her efforts on developing property management mandates and establishing an efficient management team to ensure clients are provided with first-rate property management services. Effectively immediately, Arbour will be based out of Avison Young's Montreal, Quebec office.

"Avison Young is pleased that Carole has chosen to join our growing team in Montreal. Her extensive real estate background and previous legal experience, coupled with her enthusiasm, people skills and goal-oriented personality, will lead to exciting opportunities in the marketplace," comments Poliquin. "Carole's appointment facilitates our ongoing commitment to provide the broadest and most comprehensive range of real estate integrated services to our clients."

At the start of her career, Arbour practiced law as a partner with Arbour Cordeau for more than 10 years, specializing in commercial, construction and real estate law. Over the past 11 years, she has been actively involved in the property management business. Between 1998 and 2001, she worked for SITQ as building manager for the Laval office portfolio. She was subsequently promoted to senior building manager of Place Ville Marie, a position she held for the next seven years. Place Ville Marie is a 3-million-square-foot complex comprising more than 280 office and retail tenants in downtown Montreal. During the past year, Arbour was a management consultant with CIM, a specialized consultant firm in Montreal.

"I am pleased to continue my career at Avison Young and to be affiliated with such an evolving company," says Arbour. "I am looking forward to working with the Avison Young-Quebec team to generate new property management opportunities while serving existing clients. Avison Young's commitment to quality service, combined with its strategic plans to grow, will provide new and exciting opportunities for our clients."
