Richard Haynes joins Avison Young's Mississauga industrial group

MISSISSAUGA - Martin Dockrill, Avison Young Principal and Managing Director of the company's Mississauga office, announced that industry veteran Richard Haynes has joined Avison Young's brokerage operations in Mississauga.

Effective immediately, Haynes joins Avison Young as an Associate Vice-President in the Mississauga industrial group, focusing on industrial sales and leasing in the Greater Toronto Area West market. He was most recently with DTZ Barnicke Limited in Mississauga.

"We are very pleased to have Richard come on board. With his strong business development background, past successes and dedication to the business, he will be a great fit to our growing Mississauga team," comments Dockrill. "Richard adds veteran experience to an already talented industrial group with whom he has strong relationships."

Over the past two years, Avison Young has grown from 11 to 23 offices and from 300 to more than 700 real estate professionals across Canada and in the U.S.

Throughout his more than 20 years of experience in the commercial real estate industry, Haynes has specialized in the sale and leasing of industrial properties, land and design-build projects across Canada with a focus on the western portion of the GTA. He has been involved in more than 10 million square feet of industrial transactions and has represented many large logistics companies and internationally-recognized brands such as The Collier Group, Sameday Worldwide, Panalpina, The United Way and Hemosol.

Haynes began his real estate career with Colliers Macaulay Nicolls in 1989 before moving to J.J. Barnicke Limited in 1992. He spent 19 years with J.J. Barnicke (now DTZ), save for a two-and-a-half year period in which he served as Director of Business Development for Internorth Construction (2001 to 2004).

"I am thrilled to be joining Avison Young. The company's focus on partnership with its employees, coupled with its strong commitment to delivering real value and intelligence to clients, is something I am proud to be associated with," says Haynes. "After 20 years in the business, I am excited by this new challenge and the opportunity to work with a very talented group in the Mississauga office, some of whom are friends and former colleagues."
