Company gets new VP

Richard Haynes has been named associate vice-president in the Mississauga industrial group for real estate services company Avison Young.

Haynes, who most recently worked for DTZ Barnicke Limited in Mississauga, will focus on industrial sales and leasing in the western Greater Toronto Area. He has more than two decades of experience in commercial real estate and specialized in the sale and leasing of industrial properties, land and design-build projects.

"I'm thrilled to be joining Avison Young," said Haynes. "The company's focus on partnership with its employees, coupled with its strong commitment to delivering real value and intelligence to clients, is something I am proud to be associated with."

Avison Young has more than 700 employees in 23 offices across Canada and the United States.

"We are very pleased to have Richard come on board," said Martin Dockrill, Avison Young principal and managing director of the company's Mississauga office. "With his strong business development background, past successes and dedication to the business, he will be a great fit to our growing Mississauga team. Richard adds veteran experience to an already talented industrial group with whom he has strong relationships."
