

Caplan

Coomes

Gallagher

Magnuson

Westberg

People In Motion

Janice Sellis joined Transwestern's Chicago office as a director with the firm's investment sales group. She was most recently a director at Holliday Fenoglio Fowler focusing on retail investing sales.

Sperry Van Ness, LLC (SVN), has expanded their current client offerings to include auction services through its division of the Sperry Van Ness Accelerated Marketing Team (SVN AM). Wayne Caplan, a director and principle with SVN's Chicago office and formerly of Sheldon Good and Company, will be spearheading auction efforts.

Tim Gallagher, SIOR, has joined Cushman & Wakefield of Illinois, Inc. as a director in the industrial brokerage practice, based in their Rosemont office. He joins after spending the last seven years as president of his own company, Gallagher Realty Inc., which focused on the acquisition, development, ownership and management of industrial and office property. Gallagher brings in nearly 30 years experience in commercial real estate.

Holliday Fenoglio Fowler, L.P. (HFF) hired Stephen Skok as a managing director in the debt placement group in its Chicago office. Skok will focus on originating debt, equity and structured finance transactions throughout the Midwestern United States. He has more than 23 years of commercial real estate industry experience and during the course of his career has been involved in more than $5 billion of commercial real estate transactions.

— Avison Young, Canada's largest independently-owned commercial real estate services company, announced that Lyndal Hanna has joined the company as vice president, Information Technology in their Chicago office. Hanna brings to Avison Young 20 years of experience in real estate technology. Between 2000 and 2008 she served as senior vice president of Information Technology at Grubb & Ellis Company in Chicago.

Reed Construction reported that Nick Siorek has joined the full-service construction firm as project manager within its Healthcare Group. Siorek brings more than ten years of healthcare construction experience.

Hill/Ahern Fire Protection named Shannon Coomes general manager of its Franklin Park operation.

Coomes brings more than ten years industry experience to the position.

Catherine Magnuson named vice president of small business lending at Hyde Park Bank where she is responsible for help improve access to capital for small business owners and entrepreneurs in Chicago and the seven surrounding collar counties. The Bank also comes on board with Eric Westberg as a loan officer in its residential mortgage lending group. Westberg brings over 30 years of residential lending and business development experience to the bank. He formerly was vice president of mortgage banking at Community Bank of Oak Park River Forest.

Saluting Northern Illinois
Real Estate Magazine...

20 GREAT YEARS
SERVING CHICAGO

NICE
TRICK!

CHICAGO
BUILDING CONGRESS

Join us on October 20th at the Union League Club for the Award of Honor Luncheon (Call 630/393-1