

Vancouver Sun
daily newspaper
Vancouver, BC
January 16, 2012

vice president of finance and accounting.

Stikeman Elliott welcomes Noordin Nanji (4) as a partner.

Bill MacLagan (5), managing partner of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, was elected a bencher of the Law Society for Vancouver County. (Incorrect information was printed in a previous Keeping Track.)

CAREER MOVE | Rob Glo

NEW JOB: Executive director
EMPLOYER: Greater Vancouver Alliance for Arts and Culture
OLD JOB: Managing director, Pacific Cinémathèque
QUOTE: "I wouldn't have seen it if I hadn't believed it." — Marshall McLuhan
READING: Steve Jobs, by Walter Isaacson.

GADGETS: iPhone.
EDUCATION/CREDENTIALS: Bachelor of Musical Arts (UWO), Masters of Business Administration (Queen's).
FIRST JOB: Child role in Stratford Festival production of Henry VI.
ORIGINAL ASPIRATION: Scientist
ROLE MODEL: Douglas Kinzey, arts marketing guru.
BORN: Toronto, 1969.
NUMBER OF EMAILS A DAY: 150
NUMBER OF VOICEMAILS A DAY: 8
NUMBER OF FACEBOOK FRIENDS: 2243
ESSENTIAL WEBSITE: mashable.com BEST PERK: The best perk of working in the outcome.

SPORTS/making.
PLACE AI
CONFERI
Canada 2
CAREER

Corporate Giving

Construction
10,000 to BC
1, raised at such of tournament

Savings raised Way. donated $20,000

ea $5,000 donachildren's Char-oliday cards to al Partnership

the Port Mann/lected 1,808
SHARE Family
ces Society.

Society of BC rehein Foundation.

n's Hospital ie purchase of its.

Avison Young's Vancouver office raised $12,000 for Movember, the worldwide moustache-growing event that raises awareness and funds for prostate cancer.

