

Greater Toronto Area commercial real estate investment activity falls to decade low despite second-half rally

Canada Newswire 2010-02-24

Avison Young releases Winter 2009-2010 Investment Review for the GTA, global economic malaise continues to influence local market decision-making as industrial deals dominate TORONTO, Feb. 24 /CNW/ - Commercial real estate investment activity strengthened in the second half of 2009, but totals for the year lagged behind 2008 numbers as uncertain market conditions created by the global economic downturn took their toll on both the value and quantity of transactions across the Greater Toronto Area (GTA). "The last six months of the year brought buyers' and sellers' expectations closer together,..."
