Avison Young Completes Acquisition of U.K.-based GVA

February 1, 2019

Avison Young closed the acquisition of U.K.-based GVA, one of the U.K.'s leading and most diverse real estate advisory businesses. Effective immediately, the two companies will combine under the Avison Young brand, with roughly 5,000 real estate professionals in 120 offices in 20 countries.

"This is a very exciting and memorable day in the history of Avison Young, and it's just the start of our journey as one, larger Avison Young family," Avison Young's Mark E. Rose told Connect Media. "Together, we aspire to be one of the world's elite commercial real estate companies, while holding fast to our Principal-owned model and our commitment to staying private."

He notes, the acquisition establishes Avison Young as the only privately-held, principal-led, global, full-service commercial real estate services firm. The combination also establishes it among the top five commercial real estate advisory businesses in the U.K.

Terms of the acquisition were not disclosed. As a result of the merger, Avison Young increases its revenue to 25 times its 2008 level, to roughly C$1 billion.
